LUBE TRUCK

SM4900

When you buy an STG 4,900L lube truck, you're buying from an Australian company that builds lube trucks for Australian industries and Australian businesses. Our 4,900L lube trucks come in three different chassis sizes, 6x4, 8x4 and 10x4, which allows you to customise with whatever extra modules you want, whether that be a diesel module, water module or any of our other modules.
